RESPONSE OF DEFENDANTS TO MOTION TO COMPEL REJIS, MOTION TO REOPEN A REJIS DEPOSITON, MOTION TO STAY DEADLINES AND ORDER TO RESPOND

Come now Defendants who state as follows:

1. The defendants do not oppose plaintiff's motion to issue a new set of deadlines for scheduling. In fact, defendants have been cooperative and have agreed to prior joint motions to extend deadlines.
2. The Motion to Compel and motion to re-open a REJIS deposition is addressed to REJIS. The undersigned just spoke to Ray Flojo, who is an attorney for REJIS, and the undersigned also sent to Mr. Flojo a copy of this Court's Order, Doc # 59. Mr. Flojo indicated that he will attempt to respond by Friday August 4th.
3. The problem is that if there is anything else that needs to be added to the response of non-party REJIS, the undersigned will be unavailable and will have no access to a computer until he returns on Tuesday August 8th, 2017.

WHEREFORE, defendants move that this Court issue a new set of deadlines as requested by plaintiffs and to allow defendants time to respond after REJIS responds and after plaintiffs reply.
